Battle Hymn of the Republic

(To the Air of "John Brown")

Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord:
He is trampling out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored;
He hath loosed the fateful lightning of his terrible swift sword;
His truth is marching on.

Chorus—Gloiy, Glory, Hallelujah!

In the beauty of the lillies Christ was born across the sea,
With a glory in His bosom that transfigures you and me:
As he died to make men holy, let us die to make men free,
While God is marching on.

Chorus—Glory, glory. Hallelujah!

Keep the Home Fires Burning

They were summoned from the hillside;
They were called in from the glen;
And the country found them ready
At the stirring call for men.
Let no tears add to their hardship
As the soldiers pass along;
And, although your heart is breaking,
Make it sing this cheery song

Chorus—Keep the home fires burning
While your hearts are yearning.
Though your lads are far away,
They dream of home.
There's a silver lining,
Through the dark cloud shining
Turn the dark cloud inside-out,
'Till the boys come home.

Over seas there came a pleading,
'Help a nation in distress.'
And we gave our glorious laddies,
Honor bade us do no less.
For no gallant son of freedom
To a tyrants yoke should bend,
And a noble heart must answer
To the sacred call of friend.
